Penalties:

07 Paying Late $

IRC section 6651 (a) (2)

We charged a penalty because you didn't pay your tax on time. Initially, the penalty is 1/2% of the unpaid tax for each month or part of a month you didn't pay your tax.

If you think we should remove or reduce the penalty, see "Removal of Penalties - Reasonable Cause."

40 Overstatement, Understatement, or Accuracy-Related Penalty $

IRC section 6662

For returns due before January 1, 1990, this penalty is one or more of the following: Valuation Overstatement, Valuation Understatement, or Substantial Understatement. For returns due after December 31, 1989, the accuracy-related penalty has been added. Refer to our Examining Officer's report for an explanation of the penalty.

Removal of Penalties - Reasonable Cause

The law lets us remove or reduce the penalties explained in this notice if you have an acceptable reason. If you believe you have an acceptable reason, you may send us a signed statement explaining your reason. We'll review it and let you know if we accept your explanation as reasonable cause to remove or reduce your penalty. This procedure doesn't apply to interest and, in some cases, we may ask you to pay the tax in full before we reduce or remove the penalty for paying late.

Erroneous Written Advice from IRS

We'll also remove your penalty if:

- you wrote to IRS and asked for advice on a specific issue,
- you gave IRS complete and accurate information,

- IRS wrote back to you and gave you a specific course of action to take or explained what actions not to take,

To have the penalty removed because of erroneous written advice from IRS you should:

- send Form 843 to the IRS Service Center where you filed your return for the year you relied on erroneous advice from the IRS.

The three documents you must attach to your Form 843 are:

- a copy of your original request for advice from IRS,
- a copy of the erroneous written advice from IRS, and
- a notice (if any) showing the penalty we charged that you now wish us to remove.

Interest:09 Interest*IRC section 6601
